SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 15, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred thirty-eight, a group of settlers, three hundred and thirty-one in number, ventured into a new phase of their road of life when they settled the country of Cannon High School.

Although these settlers had successfully passed the first phase in their life, grammar school, after much hard work and study had been completed, they were meek and shied away from the three clans which already inhabited this strange and frightening land. This new clan was called "Freshman" by its elders, the sophomores, juniors, and seniors, and with perseverance and will-power they progressed rapidly under the direction of J. T. Fesperman, Jr., president; Herman Hudspeth, vice-president; Betty Lindsay, secretary; and Christine Troutman, treasurer, as freshman clan leaders, and Misses Mildred Hutchinson, Crystal Henderson, Thelma Killian, and Messrs. Howard Baker, and Lester McCarn as faculty guides, and Mr. John Dupree, chief guide.

With much jubilation and excitement the settlers plowed the new ground and eagerly awaited the coming of their second year.

For some, the first year had been too strenuous and the number of settlers now was only two hundred and fifty-three. Being sophomores seemed to make the work easier and more enjoyable, and with Charles Deese, president; Herman Hudspeth, vice-president; Betty Jean Lindsay, secretary; and Christine Troutman, treasurer, and Mrs. J. D. Taylor, Misses Martha Hood, Margaret Franks, Nellie Alexander, and Mr. Paul Hudson as chief rulers, the seed of learning and wisdom had been planted deep into the ground as phase two of their new life drew to a close.

In epoch three, there was more time for extra activities, because these settlers had become well acquainted with the settlement and the procedure which was followed. Such activities as Junior-Senior Prom, Senior-Junior Party and the junior class play, "Laugh Clown," high-lighted the third year.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Under the guidance of Billy Robertson, president; Herman Hudspeth, vice-president; Inez Price, secretary; and Anna Ruth Scott, treasurer, as group leaders, and Misses Margaret Boylan, Beulah Lassiter, Martha Hood, Mrs. Thurman Frye, and Mr. J. D. Taylor, chief leaders, the settlers advanced into the territory of seniors and the third era at Cannon High came to a close just as the field of harvest was beginning to turn brown from the knowledge of wisdom seekers.

The fourth and last epoch at Cannon High was the most delightful and eventful of all. In December, the R. C. A. two-way communication system, a gift of the senior classes of '41 and '42, was installed in each home room, and the Student Government Congress was held with much success.

Many social functions featured the closing period in this new but now familiar land. A most enjoyable event was the Barnwarming which followed Senior Day. The seniors entertained the juniors at the Senior-Junior Party. But the main event was the Junior-Senior Banquet given in honor of the seniors.

Leaders who guided the fond lovers of learning through this last era were: Sarah Goodwin, president; Hilda Maulden, vice-president; J. T. Fesperman, Jr., secretary; and Charles Deese, treasurer; with Misses Loraine Gray, Mary E. Cox, Mildred Hutchinson, Thelma Killian, and Margaret Abernethy as faculty guides.

But at last the harvest field of knowledge and learning had been reaped and the settlers realized that epoch four was quickly drawing to a close. It is with joy and sorrow alike that we say "Good-bye" to this country which has been our home for four inspiring years. As we head out into fields yet unknown and unconquered along life's road, each of us can truly and proudly say, "I sought, I found, I mastered."

"LOOK FORWARD CLASS OF '42"

Look forward, ever! Oh Senior Class
With aim that's staunch and true,
Our country needs much from boys and girls
Who cherish our red, white, and blue.

Our colors here are green and white
But we must bear in mind,
That as we love and honor these
Old Glory must lead the line.

Our school days here have been happy ones
Memories that will never pass,
As we step out to greet new life
Let's each be an honor to the Senior Class.

Our teachers here have helped us much
To carry through our high school years,
That with firm foundation, we may step forth
To be outstanding, no room for fears.

We all regret to leave the past
Our friends that are dear and kind,
But as old destiny beckons, we'll answer the call
With a free and willing mind.

So goodbye dear school and those we love
And teachers kind and true,
We've won the fight, we're stepping out
The Class of Forty-two.

CLASS PROPHECY

280J, Please. Hello Cobina. This is Brenda. I just thought I would call you up for a little while and tell you about the little reunion we had at my house last night. It was a reunion of my graduating class of '42; that has been so long ago I doubt whether you can remember it or not. Everyone was very glad to be reunited once more. I want to tell you about them.

In Washington we find Janie Goodnight, Hazel Felker, Margaret Biles, and Torrence Easley doing successful work for the government.

Billy Robertson has made it possible to have Student Government in all schools. He is the National President and is immensely enjoying his work. Calvin Frye has lately also become interested in this work and is a big help to Billy.

Anna Ruth Scott has become one of the best known teachers of her time. Also following this profession we have Hilda Edmiston, Geneva Davis, Lorice Fogleman, Gladys Patterson, Frances Widenhouse, and "Lib" Wiseman.

A good many of the boys turned out to some division of the Army. Among the Air Cadets we find, Bill Byrd, Bill Cross, J. R. Ewing, Clark Gardner, Harvey Goodnight, Hartselle Hargette, Jason Honeycutt, Myron Lyerly, Cecil Marlowe, Luther Overcash, and Lynn Smith.

Among the mechanics we find Billy Shinn, Jacob Sloop, Harold Nash, Raymond Owens, Fred Coble, and Odelle Davis.

Our athletes who turned professional are Fred Daniels, Lester Brown, R. D. Dayvault, Reid Lemly, Henry Safrit, and Lewis Barts.

"Tom" Scarborough turned out to be an outstanding lady wrestler. Mildred Carter, Kathleen Carroll, and Kat Winecoff also turned out to be lady athletes.

We now find Troy Alexander, James Meeks, and Derwood Bost, doing fine work in Washington as Certified Public Accountants.

Jimmie Bost had become the best drum player in the world. In the same orchestra with him we find Bobby Benson and Harold Haynes with Kat Burton singing.

Beulah Tate, Charlie Clement, Geraldine Austin, Selma Lee Cody, Elsie Mae Collins, and Norma Deal are engaged in the best known skating rinks in North and South America.

Aline Plyler, Anyce Hare, Dot Force, Margaret Kelly, Margarey Knight, Louise Love, Ila Mode, Myra Scarboro, Sarah Sherrill, and Christine Troutman are all nurses with Irene Morgan being a lab technician.

Juanita Oliver, Phyllis Hathcock, Juanita Greene, Mary V. Kennedy, Gertrude Jenkins, Edith Potts, and Helen Armstrong are now happily married with children.

Beulah Pethel has become a successful poet.

Clinton Parker is just tops on dancing. He is the best in the world. With him in this profession we find Margaret Roberts, Montise Marlin, Colleen Goodson, Helen Lewis, Juanita Dayvault, and Bette Davis.

James Whittington is the Editor of the New York Times. Assisting him I find Kat Withers, John Fesperman, Jr., Tommy Hallman and Ed Robbins.

Charles Deese is a very wise lawyer. Also in this field we find Daulton King, Herman Hudspeth, and Allen Liles.

Maxine Carter, James Nash, Wilma Sides are all secretaries to large firms throughout the United States.

Betty S, Herman, M. J. Lambert, Merle Hendren, Edith Punch, Hilda Maulden, and B. Harrington have formed one of the most successful sextettes of all times. They are now singing with Glenn Miller.

Among the beauty operators we find Helen Long, Juanita Freeman, Kat Fink, Martha Kistler, and Marie Knight.

CLASS PROPHECY

Evelyn Smith is now on Broadway. With her we find Doris Lackey, Robert Lloyd, Christine Hager, and Evelyn Cline.

Billy Douglas and Billy Phillips have now opened the "Photo Shop" in New York. Geraldine Aderhold, Charles Reece, Oscar Ramsouer, and M. C. Pethel are employed in his shop.

We always have to have the correct time. Furnishing this time we find Bobby Dwiggins as the head. Also connected with watches we find P. M. Bennett, J. T. Epperson, Billy Cook.

Separate from the Army Air Cadets from our school we find the Centerview Flying Corps under operation of Dwight Middleton, Ralph Mann, Carlton Chambers. Every time an airplane goes over they think it belongs to them.

Mavoureneen Bray, Geneva Brinkley, Virginia Clarke, and Betty J. Lindsay entered the Ziegfield Follies after leaving our school.

Faynelle Grayson, Helen Ledwell, Helen McCool, Margaret Shinn, and Vendelia Cauble are buyers for exclusive shops in New York.

Geraldine Meacham, Vernice Shaver, Phyllis Cook, and Helen Crainshaw are among the ladies division of foreign correspondents.

Carl Grady has become the manager of Belk's Department Stores throughout the South.

Garnet Galliher has taken the place of the once famous Clark Gable on the screen. His opposite lady is Imogene Poteat, Billy Kiser is his manager.

In our Navy, the largest in the world, we find many of our graduates; among these are Ray Morton, Billy R. Safrit, Willard Osborne, Norman Poteat, and L. D. Vaughn.

Howard Steele has become a famous lecturer on "Life Begins at 40."

Betty S. Peeler has become a famous radio commentator on "Fashions of the Woman Today."

Inez Price has become the greatest woman editorial writer in the Western Hemisphere.

Colleen Sigmon has established one of the most exclusive shops for women. Modeling for her we find Ruth Stewart, Ruth Walker, and Minnie Sue Barbee.

Lib Beaver is very happy because she is now a missionary in China. China is no longer engaged in a war but is quiet and happy. Along with her she took Alma Lee Anderson, Libby Black, Kat Bolick and Ruth Brown to help her in her great work.

James Peele, our most handsome boy, had the honor of being one of the top ranking officers in the Marines. He looks handsome in his uniform. Also in the Marines we find Tommy and Merrill McCorkle, B. L. McGinnis and Herman Honeycutt.

Frank Alley has his own private business of running a filling station. His station has become very prosperous due to his personality and interest in his work. Lewis Barts, P. M. Bennett, Grover Freeman are also employed in this job.

Alvoid Freeman is one of the largest bug collectors of his time. He is very interested in the study of our insects.

Rosemary Godfrey has just written her book Advantages of Being Tall. It has become quite a success. Evelyn Dunn posed personally for all of the illustrations.

Gladys Deaton is employed by the Columbia Broadcasting Company while Dot Avant and Ruth Sloop are airline hostesses on one of the most modern planes.

Billie Starnes, Eva Walter, and Dot Teal are engaged in politics. They believe that women are as capable as men or more so. At the present they are giving a few Senators a fit.

Well, I hope I haven't taken too much of your time, but you see, I just had to tell you about my former classmates. We had the most wonderful time. Cobina, I do wish you could have been with us. As you know by this, my dearest Cobina, it seems that I have become a gossiping old fool. Please don't form too harsh an opinion of me. Please! Please!

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA }
COUNTY OF CABARRUS
CITY OF KANNAPOLIS

J. W. CANNON HIGH SCHOOL

We, the senior class of nineteen hundred and forty-two, of J. W. Cannon High School, being sound of mind and having completed our courses required for graduation, have made our last will and testament, as follows:

Geraldine Aderhold wills her ability to come to school every day in the week to Ruby Weaver and Hilda Looney, knowing that they have some use for it.

Troy Alexander wills his place on the Clean-up Committee to Harold Hoke.

Frank Alley bequeaths his place as Mr. Stewart's pet to Joe Riggs.

Alma Lee Anderson leaves her ability to stay out of "mean-ness" to Jenny Harmon and Edna Walters.

Helen Armstrong gives back to Mr. McCarn the nickname which he donated to her four years ago—"Annie Opline."

Geraldine Austin wills her brown eyes and long lashes to Dabney Reynolds.

Dorothy Avant bequeaths her ability to type to Catherine Oliver and Edith Honeycutt.

Minnie Sue Barbee wills her desire to learn all about General Science to oncoming students.

Lewis Barts donates his ability as a "bench-warmer" to Marilyn Safrit.

Elizabeth Beaver leaves her ability to play the bass fiddle to her sister, Mary Ellen.

P. M. Bennett, Jr., bequeaths his ability to "get along" in Diversified Occupation class to his brother, Wallace, hoping he'll enjoy it too.

Bobby Benson leaves to B. A. Fisher, Jr. his (Bobby's) ability to play "Sunshine."

Margaret Biles wills her "long bob" to Miss Gray.

Libby Ann Black donates her ability to keep quiet during class to her sister, Jean, knowing that she needs it.

Kathleen Bolick wills her desire to become a teacher to Katherine Brown.

Derwood Bost gladly leaves his monitor's post in the north tower to some cold-natured Sophomore.

Jimmie Bost bequeaths his entire set of drums to Max "Freshman" Harmon, knowing that he will put them to good use.

Mavoureenen Bray wills her place in the Senior class to her brother, Herbert, hoping that some day he'll be able to fill it.

Geneva Brinkley gives to her friend, Sybil Byrd, the fifth period monitor's post at the library.

Lester Brown bequeaths the weight he lost while taking Physical Education to "Dynamite" Mann, asking him to put it to good use next year in football.

Ruth Brown wills her love to Alfred Hardin and Carolyn Fritts.

Katherine Burton leaves her ability to sing and to be successful in other ways to Polly Merritt.

Bill Byrd donates his ability to chum around with Mr. Sanders to any little Freshman who feels that he needs it.

Kathleen Carroll wills her successful basketball career to June MacDonald, hoping she will achieve as much fame as she did.

Maxine Carter leaves with Miss Killian her love for talking during Correspondence class.

Mildred Carter bequeaths to her sister, Ailene, and to Miss Columbus, respectively, every good wish for good luck and much happiness.

Vendelia Cauble wills her ability to enjoy herself at all times to Colleen Hager, and her long fingernails to Jeanette Coble.

Carlton Chambers leaves his ability to get along with the girls to his brother, hoping he'll have as much success as Carlton has had.

Virginia Clark bequeaths her ability to get along with Miss Killian to next year's Seniors who will be lucky enough to have her as a teacher.

Charles Clement wills his title of "most popular Senior" to anyone in the Junior class who is willing to take lessons.

Evelyn Cline bequeaths her reputation of being the "best dressed Senior girl" to Betty Jane Walter.

Fred (Nerve) Coble donates his big mouth to Alfred Morgan so that he can be more prosperous in his position as Justice of the Peace in Petheltown.

Selma Lee Cody leaves her short stature to Virginia Perry, in case she's had as hard a time finding a tall boy as Selma had finding a short one.

Elsie Mae Collins wills her love for history to Mary Katherine Collins.

William Cook donates his ability to get by with chewing gum in Miss Abernethy's class (sometimes!) to his brother, Earl.

Phyllis Cooke bequeaths her knowledge of Bookkeeping to Leonard Mabry of Winecoff School, hoping it will help him as much as it has helped her.

Helen Crainshaw leaves her love for Miss Reid to Vera Weaver, and her Salesmanship book to Edna Myers.

Bill Cross wills love, memories, and admiration for Cannon High to Tommy Gatton and Evelyn Sprye.

Fred Daniel bequeaths his ability to make the first team in all sports to Clifford Childers.

Bette Davis leaves to Elsie V. Daves the position as head cheerleader, knowing she will do a good job of it.

Geneva Davis leaves her monitor's post to her brother, Harry.

Odell Davis wills his good looks and his ability to make good grades to Ed Messer.

R. D. Dayvault bequeaths his ability to participate in sports to Delmar Wiles.

Juanita Dayvault leaves her position as a cheerleader to "Bubber" Williford.

Norma Deal donates her drum majorette uniform to her little sister, Betty, hoping she will enjoy using it as much as Norma has.

Gladys Deaton wills her good disposition to anyone who's down on the world.

Charles Deese bequeaths his ability to get the car in by twelve to anyone who has to have his car in early, too.

Bill Douglas leaves his small amount of knowledge of photography to Ralph Towell.

Evelyn Dunn wills her height to "Frankie" Bolen, hoping she'll be able to see over crowds as well as has Evelyn.

Bobby Dwiggins bequeaths his ability to get along with others to his brother, Leroy.

Torrence Easley leaves his place on the south fire escape at the lunch hour to Everett Heintz.

Hilda Edmiston wills her love for bowling to Mary Dean Whitten, wishing that Mary Dean's score in the future will be higher than Hilda's has been in the past.

J. T. Epperson bequeaths his ability to finish school to Ray Von Lomax, Jr.

J. R. Ewing wills his love for Miss Hood to some Junior boy lucky enough to have her next year.

Hazel Felker leaves her love for Economics to any Junior who'll need it next year.

J. T. Fesperman, Jr., bequeaths his office as student conductor of the band to Charles Misenheimer, and his ability to act foolish to Brice Willeford, Jr.

Katherine Fink wills her love for football to Faye Nell Overcash, hoping she'll have as many good times as Katherine has had.

Lorice Fogleman wills her Glee Club vestment to Virginia Perry.

Dorothie Force bequeaths her stuttering to anyone who wants it, hoping they'll not have to do any tongue-twisters.

Alvoid Freeman leaves his ability to get along with the summer school teachers to Marvin Benton.

Grover Freeman wills his seat in chapel to Nathan Walker.

Juanita Freeman bequeaths her love for Business Correspondence and Miss Killian to her sister, Ruth.

Calvin Frye wills the fun he's had in Miss Killian's classes to Granton Mann.

Garnett Galliber wills his ability to get along with teachers to anyone who is in need of it.

Clark Gardner leaves his ability to play football to his brother, Jerry.

Rosemary Godfrey gives her height to Gale Allen, seeing that she needs it.

Harvey Goodnight bequeaths to Pat Roberts his "friendliness." to be added to her own.

Janie Goodnight wills her position as student banker to Brice Williford, believing he could count money better than she can.

Collcen Goodson leaves her love for tall, dark, and handsome men to Doris Moore.

Sarah Goodwin bequeaths her job as chief monitor to Betty Jane Walter, hoping she can "make 'em do better" than Sarah says she herself has done.

Carl Grady wills his ability to "sling a brush" to any Junior boy interested in commercial art.

Faynelle Grayson wills to her brother, Hoyt, all of her good times here, and to her sister, Dot, her ability to drive a car (after all those months of trying).

Juanita Greene bequeaths her ability to chew chewing gum all period in Miss Killian's classes without getting caught to all those whose favorite pastime is chewing gum.

Christine Hager leaves her desire to go into training for nursing to other girls who love their country and want to help during the present emergency.

Tommy Hallman wills his bay-window, falling arches, and high blood pressure to some other Physical Ed. student.

Anyce Hare bequeaths her monthly appearance on the honor roll to Rachel Yates.

Hartsell Hargette wills his long legs and ability to see over other people to Alfred Morgan.

Beauford Harrington leaves her ability to sit in class and day-dream to Gaynelle Austin and Wrenn Harrington.

Phyllis Hathcock wills to Kaola MacDonald the ability to attend school every day for eleven years, knowing that Kaola needs it.

Harold Haynes bequeaths his seat as second horn player to B. A. Fisher, Jr., hoping that he will some day make first chair, as Harold had always hoped to do.

Merle Hendren donates her ability to write left-handed to Janice Lyerly hoping it will improve her handwriting.

Betty Sue Herman leaves her "giggles" to Betty Woodard, hoping she won't be just too annoying.

Jason Honeycutt wills his place on the basketball team to his brother, J. C., hoping he can get the usual six points per game.

Herman Hudspeth bequeaths his ability to get rides to and from school to Phife Charles Ross who lives farther from school than does Herman.

J. Herman Huneycutt wills his bashfulness to anyone unlucky enough to get it.

Gertrude Jenkins bequeaths her ability to keep a secret (about her marriage) to Helen Alexander.

Margaret Kelley wills her small waist line to "Bubbles" Williford, believing he'd like to have it.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Norman Poteat wills his ability to finish school to anybody who needs it.

Edith Potts donates her brief height to any Junior girl who's tired of being tall.

Inez Price wills her ability to "steady" with a football player to Gilda Corbin and Bertha Lee Price.

Edith Punch leaves her job as cheerleader and her rides to and from school to her sister, Betty.

Oscar Ramsouer bequeaths his place in the D. O. class to Carl Duncan.

Charles Reece leaves his aptitude for getting along with people on the bus to Bill Shinn, who sometimes seems to have a bit of difficulty.

Edwin Robbins donates his dear old second-year French book to Mary Louise Dellinger, hoping she can make better grades than he did.

Margaret Lynn Roberts wills her love for the Maulden family to Charles Misenheimer, hoping he will enjoy it as much as she has.

Billy Robertson bequeaths his seat on the bench of the basketball team to Bobby Walden, hoping he'll have as good a team to watch as Billy has had.

Carlvin Robinson wills his everlasting cheerfulness to B. A. Fisher, Jr., who doesn't particularly need it.

Billy Ray Safrit leaves to Dobbie Brooks his Senior seat in chapel, hoping she'll like it as much as he did.

Henry Safrit bequeaths his basketball ability to J. C. Honeycutt, hoping that he'll enjoy using it.

Myra Scarboro wills her fifth period monitor's position to anyone who wants to get out of staying in study hall.

Thelma Scarborough bequeaths all the good luck possible to Miss Columbus and the girls' athletic teams of coming years.

Anna Ruth Scott wills to "Dobbie" Brooks her "baby bass," provided she wants to hold it up for an hour each day.

Vernice Shaver wills her place in the auditorium to Sam Shaver.

Sarah Sherrill bequeaths her ability to chew chewing gum in all her classes to Louise Sechler.

Margaret Shinn donates her talent for eating candy in classes to Mary Ella Crayton.

Bill Shinn leaves his ability for chewing gum in class without having to "park" it to his brother, Edd.

Wilma Sides leaves her tendency to become "hacked" to anyone who is as bashful as she is.

Colleen Sigmon wills her ability to chew gum during Shorthand class to Ed Messer, hoping he'll have fun too.

Jacob Sloop wills his seat in the Senior section of the auditorium to C. A. Sloop.

Ruth Sloop donates her height to Alfred Morgan, knowing that with their combined heights he'd be a tall, handsome guy.

Lynn Smith wills his love for Salisbury to Pat Roberts.

Evelyn Smith bequeaths her ability to play the part of a negress in plays to her sister, Rachel, just to keep the art in the family.

Billie Starnes wills her beautiful red hair to Cecile Anderson, hoping she'll like it better than Billie does.

Howard Steele leaves his ability to get along with the teachers to Bill Abernathy.

Ruth Stewart leaves the parking place in the horseshoe to her brother, Marvin.

A. D. Stricker wills his ability to chew gum gracefully to Mr. Ed Stewart.

Beulah Tate donates her skating ability to "Shine" Barts and her skates to Eva Mae Pethel.

Dot Teal leaves the nightly job of rolling her hair up before going to bed to Imogene McCool.

Christine Troutman wills to Peggy Bradford her ambition to be an artist.

L. D. Vaughn wills his position in the D. O. class to Harold Moss.

Ruth Walker bequeaths her seat in Shorthand class to Dot Fisher.

Eva Walter bequeaths her friendliness to Louise Sloop and her shortness to Vivian Hampton.

James Whittington donates his red curl to Robert Lloyd.

Frances Widenhouse bequeaths her ability to get into "messes" to Alice Bell Nash and Rebecca Towell.

The members of the Senior Class of J. W. Cannon High School have put their hands and seals on this document on this, the thirtieth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-two.

Signed: MARY JEWELL LAMBERT, Lawyer.
